

November 2008

Alberta Miculan's immigration service has been a real life saver for me on a couple of films that I have provided production services for in the last couple of years.

The first instance was a Nanny not employed by our production, but we were contractually obligated to make sure the Nanny could legally work for an actor we were sponsoring into the country. When we had exhausted all ideas for getting the Nanny in, someone gave me Alberta's contact details. Not only did she work it out but when the time period was extended and the same visa was not an option again, Alberta again came through for us without the Nanny having to leave the country.

The second instance was a British born, Australian actor who needed to travel to the UK for work and we needed urgently to prove right to work by birth in order not to have to go through the lengthy process of obtaining a work visa. Again thanks to Alberta's connections and perseverance, it all worked out.

In a business like mine where I am supposed to make things work smoothly for overseas Producers coming to Australia to work, it is good to know there is a service like Alberta's available. Alberta's phone numbers and email address are kept very close at hand. She is an extremely reliable asset.
